

Nietzsche: The History of a Political Trial.
From Nazism to the Era of Globalization

1. A reassessment of the “trial”	9
2. The fourth phase of the Nietzsche affair	15
3. Losurdo’s reassessment: Nietzsche and the “dark pages of Western history”	23
4. Adopted method: reception theory	33
5. The ‘un-sistering’ of Nietzsche: philology and ideology	39
6. Elisabeth Nietzsche and Hitler: real fabrications, false deductions	47
7. The new century: Kessler and the ‘Third Weimar’	67
8. The first phase: Sombart and the ‘nationalization of Nietzsche’ in 1914	75
9. Between the wars: Spengler and the new Right	91
10. 1930 and the second phase: Baeumler	113
11. From Baeumler to Rosenberg: the Nazi adoption of Nietzsche	135
12. The regime: from Rosenberg to Baeumler	151
13. Opposition: from the Nordic movement to the Wagnerians	165
14. Anti-Nietzschean Nazism: Steding and the Reichsinstitut	185
15. ‘Un-sistering’ in reverse	203
16. From fabrication to historical analysis: Ferraris and the Elisabeth legend	215
17. Nietzsche the antisemite?	223
18. Losurdo’s ‘black book’: Nietzsche and ‘the axis of evil’	241
19. Aristocratic radicalism and radical antisemitism	255
20. The denigration of the liberal tradition and the apologetics of the revolution	273

21. 'Colonial holocausts'? Against the globalization of Nietzsche	289
Index of names	315